To Whom It May Concern,

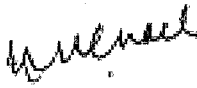

Re: Raine & Horne Commercial South Sydney / Marrickville

In early 2011 I acted as executor of a deceased estate that included a commercial property in Campsie. This property was listed for sale by way of Public Auction with Mr Luke Smith, Director of Raine & Horne Commercial South Sydney / Marrickville.

The result achieved was excellent. The price reached (under the hammer) was above the 'Reserve Price', much to the delight of the beneficiaries and me. However it was not only the result that impressed me. The consistent feedback, weekly written updates and sound professional recommendations made my task as executor, much easier than it otherwise might have been.

Luke Smith and his team provided something that is rare with most real estate agents. They added value to the sale process, from the beginning of the transaction to the very end. I would be very comfortable utilising their services again in the future.

Yours Sincerely
CHURCH & GRACE
