NEWTOWN

265 Denison Street

$1.75 million

4 \ 2 \ 1

A short walk from Newtown station, this former single-level terrace house has been transformed into a bright and contemporary dual-level dream home. "It's fully renovated with bright interiors, clean lines and modern finishes," says agent Michael Harris.

There's a stone kitchen, a cantilevered staircase and polished timber floors.

BONDI

64 Lamrock Avenue

$3.25 million

4 \ 3 \ 2

This new home is a modern interpretation of a classic beach house, says agent Deny Bernardo. "It has an impressive and spacious design, double parking and a pool." There is an all-weather dining terrace and the beach is 400 metres away.

REDFERN

2/28 Turner Street

$815,000

1 \ 1 \ 1

"I don't think I've seen a free-standing one-bedroom house before," says agent Mark Dawes of this cute inner-city oddity. Its ground-floor living space, kitchen and bathroom all spill into an ivy-framed courtyard. The upstairs bedroom has timber floors.

ROSEBERY

21 Dalmeny Avenue

$2.3 million-$2.5 million

5 \ 2 \ 3

"This blue-chip period property is an incredibly rare home for Rosebery," says Brad Gillespie of the c1914 house, possibly the oldest in the area. "It's set on more than 1000 square metres and is not just for families – it has development potential, too."
